HELP WANTED-MALE

A LARGE NUMBER of RADIO STUDENTS have trouble mastering the code, which is to be expected unless they are properly trained. In this part of the work we claim to have, in Mr. W. R. M. Gray, our supervisor and chief code instructor, the best operator and teacher of code in America. To back this statement, we hereby offer a prize of $250 cash to any wirrless operator in America who can excel Mr. Gray in sending continental code, in speed, endurance and quality of transmitting. This offer will be open at any time and contest will be arranged on a day's notice to accommodate any one accepting the challengs. Young men interested in taking up a course in witeless are invited to call for particulars. Positions always open for our graduates at not less than $125 per month, with all living expenses in addition. Catalogue on request. LOOMIS RADIO SCHOOL. 401-411 Ninth st. Phone 7829.
